My bins were not collected yesterday but I had paid yesterday morning. Why did I not get the collection that I paid for and when can you arrange another collection?

We do advise that payment should be made at least 2 working days before your collection is due to ensure there is no disruption to your service. As section 3.8 of our terms and conditions outline, the customer must ensure their account is maintained and allow adequate time for payments to be received by Oxigen. Your bins will be serviced on the next scheduled collection day on your calendar.
